supervisors to hold a reorganizational meeting during the month of January. Similar language that required specific reorganizational meeting dates in counties operating under a commissioner form of government was eliminated in 1997. This just takes care so that both forms of government, commissioner forms of government and supervisors forms of government, have the same in regulations. It must have been missed in 1997 when it should have been taken care of at that time. So this just makes them both the same. They can meet whenever they normally do. They do not have to make a special meeting and give special notice for their annual reorganizational meeting. So I will try to answer any questions, but this is a very straightforward, common-sense bill, and I urge your passage of this bill. Thank you.
